Gentlemen:

Mr. R. A. Barry of the New York Herald Tribune informs us that you are interested in the Gimbel medal presented to Miss Earhart in 1932.

Of course, this medal is not for sale but it gives us great pleasure to be able to send a copy to you. As you probably know, this medal was struck as a replica of the Gimbel award to the "most outstanding woman of America in 1932" and was presented to Miss Earhart in Philadelphia by a committee headed by Mr. Ellis Gimbel and the Mayor of Philadelphia.

Will you please accept it with the compliments of Gimbel's Stamp Department?

Very truly yours,

J. S. Minkus
